

Saturday 7 February 4:30pm

We are continuing to rehearse Act Two. This is the last week for those with scripted lines to be reading from their scripts. I have extended the time that Wyn will have to learn her script since she was involved in the Alice in Wonderland play. She will work as quickly as she can to learn her part. We are still without a person to play Alex. I am waiting to hear back from an actor who is considering the part. More to follow.

We will be covering Act Two from start to finish. Carol is working on getting a Legion Member to play the part in Act Two. We will need that person (or persons) this week if possible – next week for sure. Thanks.

I received a phone call from Jennifer Beard from the CBC. The Sunday radio program Tapestry is interested in attending one of our rehearsals and covering the story of the Home Fires Players. Participation is completely voluntary if you do not want to be interviewed. I will require written parental consent for those under 18 and written consent for those 18 and older. Parents are encouraged to stay at the rehearsal for the recording.

Those who do not want to participate may rehearse with the Support/Extras in the Annex, or may be excused from the rehearsal without question. I do not have the date for the CBC crew as yet, nor do I have the format for which they will record parts of our rehearsal and conduct interviews.

Please use the Information Form to ask questions and I will attempt to get the answers.

Consent forms must be written, dated and signed as appropriate with the following suggested format:

"I _____ (name printed) am the parent of _____ (name of your child) and give my consent for (him/her) to participate in a recording session of the rehearsal for the CBC with the following conditions: _____

Signed, dated. _____"

Those over 18 will omit the references to parental consent

"I _____ (name printed) give my consent to participate in a recording session of the rehearsal for the CBC with the following conditions: _____"

Signed, dated. _____"

On another note it has been decided to have a Base Wide return event scheduled for 12 June. This means that we will likely be holding our one and only performance on 11, or 12, or 13 June. I will be trying to get a commitment as soon as possible. Please let me know through our Information Form if there are any problems with these dates. Things are still very tentative so please do not make final plans until you hear from me the exact date and time of our performance.

I have corrected page 10 of the script to allow Bonnie to be an 8 year old girl.

We have a full schedule planned for tomorrow so please be on time and ready to go at 4:00pm.
