

Saturday 21 February 10:00pm

This will be a short daily. Everyone must be off script for Acts One and Two. Act Three, which we started last week, will need to be off script by 8 March. Remember that we will be "off" for Spring Break 15 March. Nevertheless, we must still stay with our working schedule. Please continue to work on your lines. If you are a Reader you should be very familiar with your text. This means that you don't have memory work but you should be able to read clearly and have practised your readings at home.

I am still working on the next script re-write. I will have it finished this week and ready for 1 March. We only have three more rehearsals before our break so let's make them count.

I have still not heard back from the chain of command as to the details for our performance in June.

I will need the Props List completed before 1 March so that I can build a scene blocking plot. When we come back from the Spring Break we will be using props and making scene changes. I will be giving Carol, Gillian and Gerard their instructions and they will be working with you to incorporate the stage management changes.

Keep up the Good Work!
